Op-Ed from the Chair

Don't you wonder what message the Republican candidate for governor is trying to deliver?

First, he exclaims that he was a Senate leader and balanced the budget in Olympia. He came to Olympia after running one of the most negative campaigns in the history of the 5th legislative district – attacking his opponent on the eve of the election with innuendo and lies. His nickname during that campaign was “Razorblade Rossi.”

His resume in Olympia is a short one for someone who was there for seven years – there are only a few passed bills with his name attached. In his entire senate career, he sponsored only 10 successful bills – a third of which were fluff bills whose only provisions were to “applaud” and “recognize” popular programs.

He was the Senate Chair of Ways and Means for just one year, resigning to run for Governor in 2004. After touting his supposed leadership in Olympia, he pretends of being a fresh face, an outsider, someone who will lead us out of the dire circumstances that he thinks the State is in.

The great State of Washington is in good hands with our current Governor Gregoire, who deserves to be re-elected for her fine leadership and negotiating skills, and most of all, her true caring for the people of the state. She has championed the many new businesses in this state and has represented us well across the United States and abroad. She has a true record of leadership.

He claims that there was fraud in the 2004 election. The only fraud discovered after months of recounts, trials, and appeals was the Republican candidate who claimed victory and went to a Governors conference without credentials. He is a man for no seasons.

Sound Transit—Proposition 1:

Mass transit ballot measure provides near-term express bus expansions, speeds up light rail by five to seven years. The Sound Transit Board unanimously approved placing a 15-year mass transit package on the November ballot. The plan rapidly increases express bus and commuter rail service and creates a 53-mile regional light rail system — all with a lower price tag, faster delivery dates and more public accountability than last year's roads-and-transit package. For details, access http://future.soundtransit.org/news_pr_2008_07_24.aspx

State Initiatives to the People:

- I-985 Open high-occupancy vehicle lanes to all traffic at specified hours, require traffic light synchronization, increase roadside assistance funding, and dedicate certain taxes, fines, tolls, and other revenues to traffic-flow purposes.
- I-1000 Allow certain terminally ill, competent adults to obtain lethal prescriptions.
- I-1029 Long-term care services for the elderly and persons with disabilities.

State Initiatives to the Legislature:

- I-409 Enforcement of Immigration laws
- I-410 Initiative and Referendum processes
- I-413 Require a 2/3 legislative majority to change laws concerning initiatives or referendums
- I-414 State Investment Board investing of state retirement and other funds.

King County Elections certified the Primary Election on Wednesday September 3, 2008 just before noon. Full results are available at, <http://your.kingcounty.gov/elections/200808/results.aspx>

The results indicate that 363,197 voters cast ballots out of a possible 1,041,892 for a voting percentage of 34.86%

PCO results will be made available to the Democratic and Republican County Chairs on Wednesday September 10, 2008. King County Elections is also preparing the certificates for those PCOs elected for the 2009-2010 term. The new list will be made available at our website as soon as possible on the tenth.

Let us all commit to increase the number of Democrats voting in the General Election on November 4, 2008. The 34.86% is not enough to carry our Democratic candidates to victory.

We can do better!

We need to ensure that people understand how important it is to vote in all races on the ballot and that every vote does count. We must get out into the communities and ensure that all of our friends and families send their absentee ballots in on time (yes, there were many ballots that were not post marked in time and were rejected) or help get them to the polls.

On to victory for all of our Democratic candidates!

King County Initiatives on the November 4, 2008 Ballot —

Amendments on the 2008 Ballot: (Charter Commission)

Anti-Discrimination: Updates the Charter's anti-discrimination provision to prohibit discrimination based on disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression in county employment and contracting.

Charter Amendment by Citizen Initiative: Streamlines the process by which citizens may amend the Charter, by eliminating the requirement to hold two separate public votes on charter amendment initiatives. This amendment also increases the charter initiative signature threshold to 20 percent of the votes cast in the previous election for County Executive. The Council added a provision to this amendment extending the time period for gathering charter initiative signatures to 120 days.

Regional Committees: Reduces the number of County Council members on the Council's three regional committees, establishes a vice-chair position to be filled by a non-Council member, authorizes the committees to initiate legislation, and authorizes the Regional Policy Committee to adopt its own work program without the need for Council approval.

Qualifications for Elected Officials: Permits the Council to establish additional qualifications for separately-elected officials who head charter-based executive branch departments, as is currently permitted for the office of Sheriff. These would include the office of Assessor, as well as and the position of Elections Director if Initiative 26 is passed by the citizens in November 2008.

Budget Timeline: Provides the Council with an additional 20 days to review the Executive's proposed County budget, for a total of 65 days for review, in recognition of the increased scope and responsibilities of County government.

In addition to the amendments above, three additional charter amendments will appear on the November 2008 ballot:

Economic Forecasts: The Council and Executive worked together to create an amendment that establishes an economic forecasting council for King County and an Office of Economic and Financial Analysis.

Initiative 25: A citizen initiative that proposes to make the county director of elections an elected office. It is currently an appointed position.

Initiative 26: A citizen initiative that proposes to make elective county offices nonpartisan beginning in 2009. This would include the County Executive, Assessor and Council; the Sheriff is already nonpartisan. (see next page for flyer)

NO on Initiative 26

“Shall the King County Charter be amended to make the offices of King County Executive, King County Assessor, and King County Council nonpartisan and to establish the nonpartisan selection of districting committee members?” The simple answer and vote on your ballot is, NO.

Vote NO to:

- Ensure that candidates are accountable to the people, not a few wealthy business owners
- Retain the rights of the voting public to know candidates’ political philosophy and affiliation
- Keep a forum of diverse political philosophies and transparency in government
- Preserve the right of the major political parties in King County to select and support their own candidates

If a candidate wants to run as an independent, they have that right now — Initiative 26 is a hoax — anyone can run for any office representing any party.

Don’t be swayed by special interest groups trying to buy elections and just as important, buying the committee assignments to determine district boundary lines. Special interest groups are buying their way into the political arena and fielding candidates that want to hide behind the tag of “nonpartisan.” Don’t be fooled. There is no such person as a nonpartisan, we all have likes, dislikes, and political philosophies.

When you vote on November 4th, remember that Initiative 26 is not for the good of the people but for a select group of business people who think they can buy anything!
